

Dress Code

at Dallam School Sixth Form

DRESS SMART. THINK SMART.

The Sixth Form dress code plays an important role in contributing to the ethos and standards of both the Sixth Form and the wider school. Our Sixth Form students are leaders in the school, a role model to the younger students. Our younger students wear a formal uniform and they look very smart indeed; the Sixth Form dress code should also make students appear smart and ready to learn.

It is only a short step to university or the world of work and following a dress code will prepare students for both. The dress code should allow students to express themselves as individuals, but in an appropriate way. It is particularly important that the dress code recognises that the school is a working environment for students from the age of 11 to 18. Most importantly the way a Sixth Form student dresses should not cause embarrassment to staff, students, members of the school community or to members of the wider community.

It is recognised that this dress code will not cover all issues that may arise. Students may seek to wear, for example, items which have not been covered by the guidelines, but which are against the spirit of this dress code. In such a case, or given any issue of dispute, the final word is had by the Head of Sixth Form. Students that are inappropriately dressed may be asked to go home and change.
