

Subject: Geography

Year Group: 7

Half Term	October	January	March	May	July
Topic:	How sustainable is Dallam School site?	Weather & Climate	Bela to Bay: What connects our local rivers?	What lies beneath? Rocks & Soil	Blueprint for the Future
Summative Assessment Summary:	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of sustainability and the school site	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of weather.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of rivers.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of geology.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of sustainability and our region.

Year Group: 8

Half Term	1	2	3	4	5
Topic:	Will poverty ever end?	I'm all shook up – Plate tectonics	ASIA	How did we get to 8 billion?  Population change	How do we meet the needs of 8 billion people? - Resources for all
Summative Assessment Summary:	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of poverty.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of plate tectonics.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of Asia.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of population growth & change.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of resource management.

Year Group: 9

Half Term	1	2	3	4	5
Topic:	The Almighty Dollar: Globalisation	Superpowered Geography: How do countries gain and maintain power?	Nature's Superpowers: What do biomes do for us?	How natural are natural hazards?	What will happen to our future world?
Summative Assessment Summary:	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of globalisation.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of geopolitics.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of biomes and ecosystem services.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of natural hazards and disasters.	Students will sit a formal assessment in which there will be extended questions, some skills questions and some key terms and definitions on the topic of sustainability and planetary boundaries.

