Chunking your history revision
You have so much time to still revise for your exams, you can do well!
If you spent 30 minutes every day on history, you can revise all four topics independently before the exams.

Spacing your revision
On your calendar, EVERY topic we study has been planned out for you.
All you need to do is revise each day. Topics have been interleaved to space them out, it helps your memory!

Revision Materials
Use your revision guides and exercise books you have been given. Teams has lot of resources too – knowledge organisers!
BBC Bitesize/SENECA are all brilliant for condensing your knowledge down to the essentials.

Colour Codes
Crime and Punishment:
Anglo-Sax ons and Normans:
Cold War:
Weimar Germany:

Retrieval Practice

Create your own quizzes based on topics.
Create them, test yourself or get someone to test you, it's works!

Deliberate Practice

Apply your knowledge
Revise it, practice exam questions and then go over using your notes, adding or redrafting!

Flashcards

Create with questions on side and answers on the other side. Colour code specific topics and quiz yourself.

Answer Planning

Practice planning exam question answers
Bullet point, speed plan and draft key paragraphs for exam questions

Graphic Organisers

Transform the information into visual revision to create links, show a narrative, identify the causes, consequences and importance
